

TRINITY ST MARY'S C OF E PRIMARY SCHOOL

WHAT 'CULTURAL AWARENESS' MEANS TO US

- Providing opportunities for pupils to explore their own cultural assumptions and values
- Recognising and nurturing particular gifts, everybody has different gifts and talents
- Reinforcing the school's cultural values through displays, posters exhibitions
- Age appropriate development of knowledge of Britain's democratic parliamentary system and its central role in shaping our history and values, and in continuing to develop Britain
- An understanding and appreciation of the dynamic, evolutionary range of different cultures within school and further afield as an essential element of their preparation for life in modern Britain
- An ability to appreciate cultural diversity and accord dignity and respect to other people's values and beliefs, thereby challenging racism and valuing race equality
- An openness to new ideas and a willingness to modify cultural values in the light of experience
- A sense of personal enrichment through encounter with cultural media and traditions from a range of cultures
- A regard for the heights of human achievement in all cultures and societies
- An appreciation of the diversity and interdependence of cultures
